

NUMBERING HOUSES.

1912, ch. 159, sec. 1.

415. The Mayor and Council of Hagerstown shall have authority and they are hereby empowered to pass a general ordinance providing for a system or plan for the numbering of the houses of Hagerstown, and to assign to some officer of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown the duty of seeing that houses are numbered according to the plan provided by said ordinance. The numbers and number plates shall be furnished by and at the expense of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, and shall be of such design or pattern as shall be determined by said ordinance; but any individual desiring to use a plate of different design or pattern from that prescribed by said ordinance may do so, provided that said designs are approved by the Mayor and Council; but the expense for any special design shall be borne by the property owner and not by the Mayor and Council.

1912, ch. 159, sec. 2.

416. After the regular passage and approval of an ordinance, as provided by this act, it shall be unlawful for any person or property owner to place any number on any house in Hagerstown until after said numbers shall have been first approved by the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown in manner and form as by said ordinance provided; it shall be unlawful for any person or property owner to maintain any number on any house in Hagerstown which shall not correspond with the correct number of said house, as determined by the Mayor and Council in manner and form as by said ordinance provided; it shall be unlawful for any person or property owner to change any number on any house after said house has been correctly numbered by the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown. Any person or property owner who may interfere with the officer or employee of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown in the discharge of his duties under said ordinances shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be amenable to the penalties provided by said ordinance for said offense.

1912, ch. 159, sec. 3.

417. Said ordinance shall provide as penalties for a violation of its provisions, after conviction before one of the police justices of Hagerstown, a fine not to exceed twenty-five dollars and costs, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed twenty days, or until said fine and costs are paid.

PARKS.

1918, ch. 40, sec. 1.

418. The Mayor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, shall immediately after the passage of this Act appoint five persons residents of Hagerstown, who shall constitute and be known as the Park Commission of Hagerstown, three of whom shall hold office for the first two
